

Images and image requests | Museum Panorama Mesdag

Terms of use

1. Permission must always be requested for the use of reproductions of works from the collection of Museum Panorama Mesdag for publication or any other means of reproduction. This also applies if the visual material was not obtained directly from the museum.
2. Unless otherwise stated the reproduction of the image must be accompanied by the right credit line using the following format:

Artist, Title, Year, Material, Measurements, Museum Panorama Mesdag, The Hague.

3. High resolution images will be made available only to the person(s) requesting them and are issued only for usage stated in the request. Use of the images for purposes other than those stated in the request and forwarding them to third parties is not permitted. In case of new or re-use of images a new request has to be made.
4. The delivered visual material can not be transformed into a new image that deviates from the original without permission of the museum. Editing the image (such as cropping or otherwise manipulating) is not allowed without express permission.
5. You are obliged to supply a specimen copy of the publication in which the images are used free of charge to the museum. In the case of the publication of an image on loan to the museum from a third party, you must supply two specimen copies of the publication. Please send the specimen copies to:
